Justin just checked my privacy settings for all my accounts to make sure only my friends can see my photos and personal details. 08 July 18:47 Comment Like

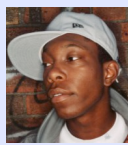

Justin this random person just added me as a friend. It might be a right weirdo! I've just ignored the request and reported it. 06 July 13:21 Comment Like

Justin is going to meet a mate from online for a bit. 01 July 19:06 Comment Like

Pixie Be careful Justin. How do you know who this person really is? You might have seen photos but it doesn't mean it's really that person. 01 July 19:10 Like

Dizzee If you really want to go and meet your friend I'd take your mum or dad just to be sure. As soon as you get there and everything is OK, they can leave you to it. Better to be safe than sorry init? 01 July 19:16 Like

Justin just changed my password because someone found out what my old one was. I've made sure it's not too easy to guess and I'm not going to write it down or tell anyone. 25 June 17:41 Comment Like

Justin just got a strange email. It said I'd won a competition and asked me to fill out some form with my name and address. Looked a bit dodgy to me so I just deleted it. 20 June 10:59 Comment Like

Katie Sounds like a Phishing scam to me. Don't open emails from people you don't know and even if you do know them don't hand out any personal information. If you're not sure ask someone. 20 June 14:04 Like

Justin So your mum and dad are away for the weekend? Home alone!! 13 May 06:40 Comment Like
